

MerMagic Con 2022
Fact Sheet

- EVENT: MerMagic Con returns for its fourth year in 2022.
- DESCRIPTION: MerMagic Con is the world’s largest mermaid convention. Held annually just outside of the nation’s capital, MerMagic Con brings together hundreds of professional and hobbyist mermaids—as well as the mer-curious— and offers access to unique panels and workshops, as well as children’s and family-friendly programming.
- WHEN: Friday, March 4 through Sunday, March 6, 2022
- WHERE: MerMagic Con programming will be held at the Freedom Aquatic Center in Manassas, VA.
- The Friday night mixer and Saturday night Gala will take place at the Washington Dulles Airport Marriott.
- ATTENDANCE: Hundreds of mermaid professionals and enthusiasts, tail and accessory makers, photographers, and artists attend MerMagic Con every year.
- PROGRAMS: The mermaid community is at the heart of MerMagic Con. This year, MerMagic Con welcomes back the incredibly popular tail-making company Finfock Productions, professional underwater photographer and filmmaker Brett Stanley, and dozens of other creators and professional performers.
- Attendees can also participate in a number of workshops and panels covering professional development, costuming, underwater photography, character building, history and lore, and instruction from nationally renowned dive organizations NAUI and PADI. Back this year is expanded children’s and family-friendly programming, including a bubble show, all-ages swim classes, story times, free kids crafts, swimming competition, and more.
